Dear Parents

Year 12 Studies of Religion Excursion

On Tuesday, 14 May, the Year 12 Studies of Religion class will be visiting The North Shore Synagogue for two seminars on Jewish Ethics and Abraham Heschel. These topics are relevant to their Depth Study on Judaism as part of the HSC Studies of Religion course. The address of the venue is listed below:

The North Shore Synagogue
15 Treatts Rd
Lindfield

Sydney Jewish Museum
148 Darlinghurst Rd
Darlinghurst

Students are to meet Mrs Bright at The North Shore Synagogue by 9.00am. Our seminars are between 9.15am – 12.00 noon. Students are to make their own way to the synagogue. We will then be travelling from the Synagogue to the Jewish Museum in the city. They will be dismissed after our tour of the museum and will make their own way home at approximately 3.00pm. Students must bring their own lunch.

The total cost for the excursion (including the seminars and entry to the museum) is $23.00. This will be added to your school fees. Students will also need to pay for their transport to and from the synagogue and museum.

Students must wear full school uniform. For any emergency contact on the day, please phone 0425 606 933.

Yours in the service of Christian education

Mrs H Bright
Studies of Religion Teacher

Mr J Hill
History Coordinator
